INVESTMENT STRATEGY

Fund IV will employ an early-stage venture capital strategy, targeting Seed through Series B investments in high-growth technology companies. Aurora focuses on four thematic verticals:

1. Enterprise SaaS & Cloud Infrastructure — B2B software platforms and cloud-native infrastructure
2. Artificial Intelligence & Intelligent Compute — AI/ML foundational models, infrastructure, and applications
3. Blockchain Infrastructure — Decentralized protocols, Layer 2 scaling, and institutional crypto infrastructure
4. Consumer Mobile — High-retention consumer applications with demonstrable network effects

Past performance is not necessarily indicative of future results. Track record figures are unaudited, as of December 31, 2025, and have not been independently verified. Net figures reflect actual management fees and carried interest charged; gross figures do not. Investors should not rely solely on track record data when making investment decisions.

RISK FACTORS (SELECTED)

Early-Stage Investment Risk	Investments in early-stage companies are speculative and illiquid. A significant portion of portfolio companies may fail.
Illiquidity	Interests in the Fund are not transferable without GP consent. No secondary market exists.
Key Person Risk	The Fund is dependent on Marcus Reeves, Daniel Brenner, and Rebecca Stern. The loss of key persons may adversely affect returns.
Concentration Risk	The Fund's portfolio may be concentrated in a limited number of investments or sectors.
Valuation Risk	Portfolio company valuations are based on estimates and may not reflect realizable values.
Regulatory Risk	Aurora operates under an ERA exemption. Changes in applicable law or regulations may affect operations.
Reputational Risk	The founders' public profiles create headline and reputational risk that may adversely affect the firm.
