1. BUSINESS CONTINUITY OBJECTIVES

This Business Continuity Plan ('BCP') establishes Aurora Capital Management's framework for maintaining critical business operations during and after a disruptive event. Given Aurora's fully remote operating model, the firm is structurally resilient to many physical disruptions; however, this BCP addresses system outages, key person unavailability, and third-party service disruptions.

2. CRITICAL BUSINESS FUNCTIONS

Investment Management	LP capital deployment, portfolio monitoring, IC decision-making — RTO: 4 hours
Investor Reporting	LP capital account statements, quarterly reports — RTO: 48 hours
Fund Administration	Delegated to Meridian Fund Services — backup processing per Meridian BCP
Finance & Accounting	Kevin Park primary; Elena Ruiz backup — RTO: 24 hours
IT Systems	Cloud-hosted; Vantage Tech Partners SLA — 99.9% uptime
Communications	Primary: email/Slack; Backup: personal mobile; Tertiary: conference bridge

3. KEY PERSON CONTINGENCY

In the event that one or more Key Persons (Marcus Reeves, Daniel Brenner, or Rebecca Stern) is unavailable, the remaining General Partners will assume responsibility for critical investment management decisions. If two or more Key Persons are simultaneously unavailable for an extended period (>30 days), the LPA key person provisions will be triggered and LPs will be notified.
