SECTION 1 — INVESTMENT STRATEGY & PROCESS

1.1 Describe the fund's investment strategy, including target sectors, geographies, and stages.

Aurora Ventures IV, L.P. pursues an early-stage venture capital strategy focused on acquiring minority interests in technology companies across four primary verticals: Enterprise SaaS and Cloud Infrastructure, Artificial Intelligence and Intelligent Compute, Blockchain Infrastructure, and Consumer Mobile. The fund targets Seed through Series B financing rounds in companies headquartered in North America and Israel.

1.2 What is the fund's target portfolio construction?

Fund IV expects to make 20–25 initial investments across the target verticals, with initial check sizes ranging from $5M to $15M. The fund reserves approximately 50% of committed capital for follow-on investments in top-performing portfolio companies. Reserve ratio and portfolio construction parameters are reviewed at each Investment Committee meeting.

1.3 Describe the investment process from sourcing to close.

Aurora sources investments primarily through (i) proprietary network referrals from the founders' entertainment and media industry networks, (ii) co-investment referrals from Silverline Media and other strategic relationships, and (iii) accelerator and incubator partnerships. All investment decisions require unanimous approval of the Investment Committee, comprising Marcus Reeves, Daniel Brenner, and Rebecca Stern. Decisions are documented in investment memos reviewed by the full team prior to IC deliberation.
